Wilderness Protection in Polar Regions

Arctic Lessons Learnt for the Regulation and Management of Tourism in the Antarctic

Antje Neumann, University of Akureyri

Based on a study of wilderness protection in three Arctic countries, Antje Neumann identifies numerous 'lessons learnt' which could improve the protection of Antarctica's wilderness, in particular with regard to the increasing and diversifying tourism in the region.

Human and Societal Security in the Circumpolar Arctic

Local and Indigenous Communities

Edited by Kamrul Hossain, Arctic Centre, Northern Institute for Environmental and Minority Law, José Miguel Roncero Martín, and Anna Petréttei, Arctic Centre, Northern Institute for Environmental and Minority Law

Human and Societal Security in the Circumpolar Arctic addresses a comprehensive understanding of security in the Arctic, with a particular focus on one of its sub-regions – the Barents region. The book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective to which the Arctic is placed as referent, and special attention is paid to the viewpoint of local and indigenous communities.
